Bio farm Koolmees is a mixed small-scale agricultural company in Ichtegem. 4 hectares small, but big in producing sustainable and local vegetables, fruit, dairy and meat. We work in a natural way, with agroforestry as a starting point. About 160 fruit-bearing trees overlook the underlying crops: small fruit, pasture and free-range land (for dairy goats and pigs) and a large garden with vegetables and herbs.
